

INTERNATIONAL AG SAFETY AND HEALTH (ISASH) CONFERENCE IN HALIFAX JUNE 2018 - with YOUR support!

In 2018, the Canadian Agricultural Safety Association (CASA) and Farm Safety Nova Scotia are co-hosting - Farm to Sea: anchoring agricultural health and safety – the annual conference of the International Society for Agricultural Safety and Health (ISASH) June 24 – 27 in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

ISASH has a strong history of bringing together the ag safety and health community to network for the greater good of those involved in agriculture. And the 2018 conference will build on that reputation.

This ISASH conference will bring together ag safety and health professionals and researchers from Canada, the US and around the world to learn, debate and discuss the latest developments and trends in their field. Up and coming grad students in ag safety and health will field questions about their research at international institutions.

In short, this ISASH conference will be THE best place ever to network with other ag safety and health professionals.

But we can't do it without you. Truly. Your support is integral to advancing international ag safety and health development and training.
